BLACK STUDENTS MATTER

SECTION 2: BRINGING US TOGETHER

July 20 | 6 p.m. | Register at
<https://bit.ly/BlackStudentsMatter2>

Our goal is to provide a supportive and open space for WVU Black and Brown students to discuss their responses to systemic racism and oppression and impact on mental health and well-being. White, POC, and other identified students, faculty/staff, and community members are also welcome to share the space for a learning and sharing experience and reflect on our social change roles.

Sponsored by the Carruth Center for Psychological and Psychiatric Services; Division of Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion; Adventure WV, and the Center for Black Culture & Research
